

The Department of Orthopedic Surgery at the University of Cincinnati seeks interested candidates for a Chief of Orthopedic Hand Surgery position. We are seeking individuals that will lead the division through continued growth, while partnering with the Division of Plastic Surgery to build a multi-disciplinary care approach for hand care across the academic medical center.

Some highlights of the position are:

- Opportunity to grow an existing program
- Opportunity for Endowed Chair
- Established fellowship program in place
- Excellent collaborative environment - work with highly trained colleagues, experts in the field - physicians at the university work together to provide patients with the best care
- Dedicated space for a new Hand Surgery Center with in-suite hand therapy
- Department of Orthopedic Surgery currently has 37 full-time faculty and 3 fellowship positions matching the clinical services program
- Excellent salary and benefit package
- Current Division Chief retiring from this role, but will stay on faculty to assist with transition
- Generous protected research and administrative time
- The university is the only Academic Health Center within 90 miles

Qualifications:

Candidates must hold an M.D., D.O. or equivalent degree from an accredited medical school, board certification and recertification if applicable; academic accomplishments that would merit appointment at the associate professor or professorial level in the tenure system preferred, but willing to consider an assistant level; relevant administrative experience; and evidence of effective interpersonal skills. The successful candidate will have an academic background, oversee clinical activities of the division, and enhance the education of medical students, Orthopedic Surgery Residents and Hand Fellows.

If you would be interested in discussing the position personally, please reply with your contact information and current CV.

Thank you for your time and consideration and I hope to hear from you soon.
