

THE DEPARTMENT OF OBSTETRICS AND GYNECOLOGY AT MAYO CLINIC IN ROCHESTER, MN, IS SEEKING CANDIDATES FOR THE POSITION OF CHAIR, DIVISION OF OBSTETRICS.

The Rochester division chair will play a lead role in shaping the practice of obstetrics throughout the 12 regional medical centers of the Mayo Clinic Health System. The ideal candidate will serve as a role model and catalyst to inspire collaboration with other subspecialty practices within the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, and with relevant departments and divisions within Mayo Clinic. Working in partnership with department leadership, the obstetrics division chair is charged with oversight and development of clinical practice, research and education within the Division of Obstetrics.

In addition to leadership responsibilities, the chair will provide office-based obstetrics care and labor & delivery services. OB physicians partner with Certified Nurse Midwives to provide care for low risk pregnancies.

QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates must be board-certified in OB/GYN and have demonstrated administrative and leadership accomplishments as well as an aptitude for mentoring and staff development. Candidates must demonstrate experience in leading quality and safety projects or programs.

MAYO CLINIC is an excellent choice for the candidate who is seeking a career in a world-class academic medical center. Our multi-disciplinary group practice consists of approximately 3,800 physicians and scientists across all locations working in a unique environment that brings together the best in patient care, groundbreaking research and innovative medical education.

Mayo Clinic offers a highly competitive compensation package, which includes exceptional benefits, and has been recognized by FORTUNE magazine as one of the "100 Best Companies to Work for".
