

Yale School of Medicine (YSM) seeks nominations and applications for the inaugural position of Associate Dean and Chief Diversity Officer (CDO) to lead efforts on advancing diversity and equity. The CDO will report to the Dean of the Medical School, have a dotted line reporting relationship to the Deputy Provost of the University, and will serve as a member of the Dean's cabinet. YSM is strongly committed to furthering racial, gender, ethnic, socioeconomic and disability diversity. The CDO will work closely with the dean and members of YSM's senior leadership, faculty and other key colleagues and diversity committees, to promote inclusion in every aspect of life at YSM.

The ideal candidate will be a nationally recognized leader with proven experience in the research, literature, and implementation of diversity science. He or she will have demonstrated a commitment to diversifying faculty, students, staff, and curriculum. The CDO will be a proven administrator and leader who can take the existing foundation of diversity and inclusion initiatives at YSM to the next level. The CDO will partner with the Dean of the Medical School, faculty, and other YSM Senior Leadership to develop a robust recruitment and retention program, especially for faculty. The new CDO will ensure that all faculty, staff, residents, and employees work collaboratively and effectively in advancing issues of diversity, equity, and inclusion campus wide. Additional information about Yale School of Medicine is available at medicine.Yale.edu.

Inquiries, nominations and applications are invited. Review of applications will begin immediately, and will continue until the position is filled. For additional information, please contact the Search Committee's consultants Oliver B. Tomlin, III and Lisa DeSimone Arthur at YALECDO@Wittkiewer.com. The consultants can be reached by phone through the office of Natalie Clay at (301) 654-5070.

Yale School of Medicine values diversity and is committed to equal opportunity for all persons regardless of age, color, disability, ethnicity, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, veteran status or any other status protected by law.
