

Associate Dean for Graduate Medical Education & Designated Institutional Official Virginia Commonwealth University Health System
Richmond, VA

Description:

Virginia Commonwealth University Health System seeks a dynamic leader to serve in the position of Designated Institutional Official/Senior Associate Dean for Graduate Medical Education.

VCU Health provides training for 800 residents and fellows in 72 ACGME accredited specialty and subspecialty training programs. VCU Medical Center, the centerpiece of VCU Health, is a fully accredited 779-bed, tertiary care facility honored as a Joint Commission Top Performer on Key Quality Measures® and Level I Trauma Center providing award-winning comprehensive medical and surgical services. VCU Health's 52-acre campus is located in the heart of Richmond, Virginia, a beautiful city that has consistently been recognized as one of the best places to live in and visit in the U.S. by Realtor.com, The Huffington Post and others.

This position has authority and responsibility for oversight and administration of all VCU Health GME Programs. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: regulatory, accreditation and operational components of Graduate Medical Education specifically ensuring compliance with ACGME requirements and overseeing the ACGME Clinical Learning Environment Review, implementation and maintenance of administrative policies, procedures, fiduciary oversight, and day-to-day supervision of the GME office and associated administrative support staff. The position will occupy 80% of the individual's effort and 20% effort will be in the selected candidate's professional medical specialty.

Requirements:

The successful candidate will be a physician with broad administrative experience, current in-depth understanding and knowledge regarding accreditation of GME programs, and strong organizational and communication skills. A collegial and collaborative management style is essential.

The candidate must be eligible for licensure in the state of Virginia and possess credentials for an appointment as Faculty at the rank of Associate Professor.
