

Chair, Department of Pediatrics
Pediatrician-in-Chief and Vice President, Academic Affairs

The Keck School of Medicine of USC (KSOM) is recruiting a Chair, Department of Pediatrics who will also serve as Pediatrician-in-Chief and Vice President for Academic Affairs for Children's Hospital Los Angeles (CHLA).

CHLA is at an inflection point in its extraordinary 115-year history, poised to garner support for further growth and development to achieve recognition for national pre-eminence. For the eighth consecutive year, CHLA has been named in the top 10 U.S. News & World Report's Best Children's Hospitals, most recently ranked #7.

The Chair/Pediatrician-in-Chief will be a visionary leader with a passion for further developing an outstanding and successful clinical, research and academic enterprise that serves a large and diverse patient population in a world-class children's hospital and research institute. He/She will work collaboratively with the leadership of the medical school, the Keck Medical Center of USC, LAC+USC Medical Center and, in particular, with the leadership of the CHLA, in the successful execution of strategies based on discovery, clinical innovation, patient care, and continual improvement of quality, safety, and efficiency.

Interested candidates will hold an M.D. degree or M.D./Ph.D. degrees, be board certified in Pediatrics, be active in academic societies and have a professional network that will be an important asset in recruitment and reputation building. A keen understanding of institutional needs, departmental needs and the means to achieve mutual benefit, as well as an understanding of the collaborative nature of the relationship between the KSOM and CHLA are essential.

The Academic Health Center Practice of Korn Ferry is assisting KSOM with this important search. Please forward, as soon as possible, your application, including letter of interest, or nominations of highly qualified candidates to:

Warren E. Ross, M.D. and John Ferry, M.D. F.A.A.P.
