

Director of the Section of Ultrasound in Diagnostic Radiology

Dartmouth-Hitchcock, the department of Diagnostic Radiology and the Geisel School of Medicine at Dartmouth seek a dynamic Abdominal Radiologist to serve as the Director of the Section of Ultrasound in Diagnostic Radiology. This is an outstanding opportunity to join a growing, vibrant service that provides vital services at many locations throughout our system (NH and VT). The Section of Ultrasound Radiology offers a progressive, structured reporting system, highly-educated technicians and a mature approach to clinical care and academic teaching.

Ideal candidates for this position should be fellowship trained and experienced as a Cross Sectional Imager with particular interest in Ultrasound. This Abdominal Radiologist will perform and direct the full spectrum of abdominal modalities with primary interest in all aspects of Ultrasound including abdominal, pelvic, OB and vascular. Since Dartmouth-Hitchcock is a dynamic, academic system, this position will include medical student, resident and fellow teaching. Academic rank at the Geisel School of Medicine and salary will be commensurate with experience and qualifications. We are committed to improving healthcare through excellence in image-based clinical care, education and translational imaging research.

The Dartmouth-Hitchcock health system stretches over New Hampshire and Vermont and offers the quintessential New England experience. With no income or sales tax, this beautiful area combines history, industry and business and has been ranked consistently as one of the best places in the US to live and work. Anchored by the academic Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon, NH, the system includes the NCI-designated Norris Cotton Cancer Center, the Children's Hospital at Dartmouth-Hitchcock; 4 affiliated hospitals and 30 Dartmouth-Hitchcock ambulatory clinics across the region. With destinations like Boston, New York, the seacoast and ski country within driving distance, the opportunities - both career and personal - truly make New Hampshire the ideal place to work and play.

Candidates are requested to upload a CV and cover letter on our recruitment site at <http://www.dhproviders.org>. Cover letters should be addressed to Anne Silas, MD
