

Fellowship Director of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry | University of Nevada | Reno, Nevada

Merritt Hawkins is pleased to announce the availability of a Fellowship Director of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry opportunity with the University of Nevada: Reno. In partnership with the Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences Department, we are seeking an individual to join this university at the academic rank of Associate or Full Professor.

OPPORTUNITY SNAPSHOT

- This is a clinical role with a focus on academics, teaching and research
- Flexible and consistent schedule, Monday through Friday—light call
- Opportunity to teach and mentor fellows, residents and medical students
- Opportunity to utilize resources available for research focus
- Superior state-funded benefits—health, dental, life, vision, paid malpractice and CME
- Retirement: defined benefit and contribution plans are offered—choose the best plan for you! 13.25% match of your annual base is added to your plan per year—call for details!
- Relocation allowance

UNIVERSITY HIGHLIGHTS

- Tremendous collaborative environment—work with highly trained colleagues who are willing to mentor
- National Tier One university based on the quality of the students, faculty, research and degree programs
- Large enough school to offer every educational amenity but small enough to focus on excellence

NO STATE INCOME TAX | LOW COST OF LIVING | TORT REFORM

COMMUNITY HIGHLIGHTS

- Over 300 days of sunshine per year
- Top 5 Best Mid-Size Market to do business in—Inc. Magazine
- Voted in the Top 10 on Livability's Top 100 Places to Live—2014
- Top 10 Best Emerging Ski Towns—National Geographic 2014
- Cost of living is 5.8 % lower than the national average
- #1 Most Populous and Highest Density Area for Start Up Ventures—The Kaufman Foundation

Contact Ally Geller, Academic Search Consultant at 469.524.1560 or via email at Ally.Geller@merritthawkins.com to learn more.