

Chairperson, Surgery - Jeanes Hospital

Temple University School of Medicine (TUSM) is currently seeking qualified applicants and candidate nominations for the role of Chairperson of Surgery at Temple Health's, Jeanes Hospital.

Reporting to the Chairperson, Department of Surgery TUSM the Chairperson of Surgery, Jeanes Hospital is responsible for the overall planning, governance and decision making of the Surgery Department as well as the coordination of the Departments activities and goals in conjunction with Temple's mission, vision, and values. The Chairperson will also serve as the Director of Medical Education at Jeanes Hospital and will coordinate GME, Medical Student and Advanced Practice Clinical Education. The Chairperson will communicate effectively and frequently with clinical and administrative leadership, as well as with the faculty and staff to ensure that the strategies and activities of the Department of Surgery are aligned with the mission and goals of the organization and the needs of its faculty and staff.

The new Chairperson will be an accomplished general surgeon with a distinguished record of patient care, education and administration. Prior experience leading a clinical department in a community based hospital is strongly preferred. The ideal candidate must have the proven ability to work in collaboration with other Chairs, Chiefs, administration, faculty and staff and will be an M.D. with active board certification by the American Board of Surgery and possess credentials for appointment at the rank of Associate or Full Professor. Candidates also must in possession of or eligible for medical licensure in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

For almost 85 years, Jeanes Hospital has combined excellence in health care with a compassionate, personal touch. Today, as a member of the Temple University Health System, Jeanes offers state-of-the-art medical, surgical and emergency services, providing patients with the comfort and convenience of a community hospital along with the resources of a downtown academic medical center. The experienced doctors and dedicated staff are focused on offering patients access to the latest treatments and diagnostics, while never losing sight of the hospital's dedication to serving and caring for the surrounding community.

Interested candidates should submit a current curriculum vita and complete contact information to the address below. Personal statements summarizing teaching experience, clinical and research interests, leadership experience and contributions to diversity are encouraged.

Amy Goldberg, MD, Professor and Interim Chairperson, Department of Surgery, Temple University School of Medicine, C/O Michael Lester, Director, Physician/Faculty Recruitment & Retention, Temple University School of Medicine, 3420 N. Broad Street, MRB 101, Philadelphia, PA, 19140, Email: michael.lester@tuhs.temple.edu

The University is especially interested in qualified candidates who can contribute through their research, teaching, and/or service to the diversity and excellence of the academic community. Temple University School of Medicine is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer and strongly encourages applications from women, minorities, veterans, and persons with disabilities.