

Associate Vice President - UT Southwestern - Ambulatory Operations

The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center (UT Southwestern) seeks an accomplished academic faculty practice executive to lead the administrative, financial and operational activities of all Ambulatory Care Services and Clinics of UT Southwestern. The Associate Vice President (AVP) Ambulatory Operations works collaboratively and establishes partnerships with the clinical department chairs and faculty, ensuring evidence based medicine practices, state-of-the-art operational processes and multidisciplinary programs and services.

The AVP will work to enhance productivity, establish clinical quality excellence, develop performance metrics, and improve practice operations across the ambulatory clinics. With over 1 million patient visits per year, the AVP will play an important strategic role in expanding faculty practice opportunities across the greater Dallas/Fort Worth area.

Ideal candidates will have a demonstrated track record in ambulatory operations within an academic health system. The successful candidate will act as a change agent to achieve the highest levels of clinical quality, operational excellence and patient centered care at UT Southwestern. Exceptional leadership, interpersonal, and communication skills are essential. A Master's degree in healthcare administration or business is required, with experience in Six Sigma and lean processes preferred.

The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center integrates pioneering biomedical research with exceptional clinical care and education. The institution's faculty includes many distinguished members, including six who have been awarded Nobel Prizes since 1985. Numbering approximately 2,800, the faculty is responsible for groundbreaking medical advances and is committed to translating science-driven research quickly to new clinical treatments. UT Southwestern physicians provide medical care in 40 specialties to about 92,000 hospitalized patients each year. Interested or qualified candidates should submit their resume to:
