

Chief, Pathology and Laboratory Medicine Service, VA Boston Healthcare System

The VA Boston Healthcare System (VABHS) seeks a dynamic and visionary leader to direct the Pathology and Laboratory Medicine Service (PALMS) and oversee the Boston Area Consolidated Laboratories. We seek a pathologist with subspecialty training in anatomic or clinical pathology, national prominence, strong academic interests, and extensive experience in laboratory management. VABHS is affiliated with Harvard Medical School (HMS) and Boston University School of Medicine (BUSM). Accomplishments should be commensurate with academic appointment as associate professor or professor of pathology at HMS or BUSM.

The Boston Area Consolidated Laboratories (BACL) comprises laboratories and/or outpatient phlebotomy stations at VABHS and the Bedford VA Medical Center. There are approximately 109 FTEE, including 11 pathologists. VABHS is the major tertiary referral center for veterans from throughout New England and is strongly affiliated with HMS and BUSM. VABHS is the nation's largest recipient of VA research funds and ranks among the top three VA facilities in total research funding. Major resources include leadership of the Million Veterans Program, the world's largest genomic biorepository, National VA brain banks for traumatic brain injury and PTSD, the world's largest biorepositories for both disorders, brain banks for Alzheimer disease and ALS, and access to 20 years of fully electronic records on 22 million veterans, presenting the opportunity to mine terabytes of data to influence patient care.

US citizenship is required. Women and minorities are strongly encouraged to apply. This position is eligible for a relocation or recruitment bonus. We are an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.
