International Hymn Fest!

With Ugandan gospel star and human rights activist Fr. Anthony Musaala

3 p.m. Sunday, August 2

Hadwen Park Congregational Church, UCC ~ 6 Clover St. Worcester, MA

Father Anthony Musaala is a Catholic priest from Uganda who has stood against the Catholic church on many issues, including the human rights of LGBT persons. Because of this, he no longer has a parish and is in Kenya, helping asylum seekers and refugees find a safe place to live.

Father Musaala is an amazing songwriter, composer of liturgical masses, a lover of Afro-gospel, and the writer of some beautiful contemplative Christian music. In Uganda, he is a gospel star like Amy Grant or Steven Smith or maybe, Ken Medema. He has blessed Hadwen Park Church in worship these past few weeks with his stories and singing, while he supports Hadwen Park's asylum program and the many refugees who are now members of the church in part because of his efforts in Kenya.

Following this concert, Father Masaala will return to Uganda and then to Kenya to continue his ministry. Come and hear this charismatic man's beautiful voice, and hear about his commitment to the oppressed.

No charge, however a love offering will be accepted for Fr. Anthony Musaala and his ministry in Kenya and for the LGBT Asylum ministry in Worcester.
