

PlymouthCRAFT

CONTACT

Paula Marcoux
craftplymouth@gmail.com
PlymouthCRAFT.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

What you can learn from CRAFT, this fall and winter:

Wood-splint basket-making — Learn to distill the strength and beauty of an ash tree into a basket; a two-day workshop with master woodworker Peter Follansbee.
November 7th and 8th, 9 am - 4 pm. Overbrook House, Buzzards Bay.

Arraiolos carpet embroidery — Portuguese traditional handwork, taught by master needlewoman Elizabeth Creeden.
November 7th, 9 am - 4 pm. Overbrook House, Buzzards Bay.

Penny rugs — Colorful American folk art applique work, taught by Laurie Sybertz.
November 8th, 9 am - 4 pm. Overbrook House, Buzzards Bay.

Berne loaf — Hands-on yeast bread-baking primer with Paula Marcoux.
November 8th, 2 pm - 5 pm. Overbrook House, Buzzards Bay.

Natural dyeing — More than fifty colors brewed up from just four natural materials; a two-day intensive with guest instructor Amelia Poole. Supported by the Makepeace Neighborhood Fund.
November 14th and 15th, 9 am - 4 pm. Overbrook House, Buzzards Bay.

North Plymouth tortellini (Toodelings!) — Make (and eat) this traditional local holiday favorite with Paula Marcoux and Kathleen Curtin.
November 15th, 10 am - 2 pm. Overbrook House, Buzzards Bay.

Carving wooden spoons — Learn from Peter Follansbee how to use hatchets and knives to produce beautiful and useful implements from our local trees.
December 5th and 6th, 9 am - 4 pm. Overbrook House, Buzzards Bay.

German holiday baking — Learn from Kirsten Atchison how to make her fabulous Stollen, Zimsterne (cinnamon stars), Vanillekipferl (vanilla crescents) and Pfeffernüsse (spicy gingerbread).
December 5th, 2 pm - 5 pm. Overbrook House, Buzzards Bay.

Dutch letter cookies — Celebrate the holiday of Sinter Klaas by learning to make historic and delicious almond-filled letter-shaped cookies, just like in Dutch still-life paintings. With Paula Marcoux.
December 6th, 2 pm - 5 pm. Overbrook House, Buzzards Bay.

Bobbin lacemaking — Special guest instructor Holly van Sciver will teach this intricate historic handwork to all levels of students; this time the project is an hourglass motif. Supported by the Makepeace Neighborhood Fund.
January 9th and 10th, 9 am - 4 pm. Whitfield House, Plymouth.

