Flawless Day Spa & Wellness Center's 10 Ways to Nourish Yourself Seminar (May 13)

Are you exhausted and sleep deprived even though you climbed into bed at 9:00 pm? Do you drag yourself out of the bed, late as usual? Are you barely able to shower and guzzle down the first cup of Joe while running out the door? Do you find yourself rushing through your day, putting out proverbial fires, then grab whatever fast food on the go as you run to your evening obligations? Sound familiar? If any of this resonates with you, here is an event you won't want to miss. 6:30-7:30 p.m., Wednesday, May 13 at 901 Willow Drive, Ste. 1 Chapel Hill. Register online for $20 or $15 if you bring a friend. <http://bit.ly/1GbCkKQ>

Grand Opening & Ribbon Cutting, Tom + Chee Carrboro (May 15)

Celebrate the grand opening of Tom + Chee Carrboro, 370 E. Main St. Ste 140 in Carrboro, Friday, May 15. Grand opening at 10:15 a.m., doors open for business at 10:30 a.m. Tom + Chee is a "grilled cheese and tomato soup shop for the kid at heart, mixing classic comfort food with fresh ingredients, healthy alternatives, and a flare for the unexpected." <http://bit.ly/1laFvbZ>

4th Annual Food Truck Rodeo (May 16)

4th Annual Food Truck Rodeo to benefit TABLE! The event will feature live music, a Donut Eating Contest judged by local "foodie" celebrities and very special guests, a kid's play area, storytelling by Cynthia Raxter, and of course, food trucks. This year's food trucks include: Al's Burger Shack, Stuft, Stoke & Smoke, Hibachi Xpress, Olio & Aceto, Captain Pancho's, Gussy's Mediterranean, and for sweet treats Dusty Donuts, Tarheel Creamery and Waffology. Join the festivities at Orange United Methodist Church, 1220 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd., Chapel Hill, 3-7 p.m., Saturday, May 16th. For more information the media can contact Ashton Chatham Tippins, TABLE's Executive Director, at (919) 636-4860 or achatham.tablenc@gmail.com. Food trucks will donate 12% of their proceeds to TABLE.

Fix-A-Home Project Food Truck Rodeo (May 30):

On Saturday May 30th from 4-8 p.m., The Fix-A-Home Project will be holding our 2nd Annual Food Truck Rodeo & Silent Auction Fundraising Event at the Fitch Lumber Co. parking lot! Additionally, there will be a Silent Auction with lots of exciting items on which to bid. A portion of the food truck rodeo revenue and all silent auction proceeds will benefit the Fix-A-Home Project, an annual community service project undertaken by Greater Chapel Hill Association of REALTORS which targets homeowners in our market who take pride in homeownership but are physically and/or financially unable to make repairs or perform maintenance on their homes. One home is chosen each year to receive repairs and upgrades that are made by GCHAR volunteers, partnering vendors and tradesmen. Find out more information at facebook.com/TheFixAHomeProject.

Playmakers presents "Guys and Dolls" (July 15)

With a cast of colorful characters straight off the streets of 1930s Broadway, "Guys and Dolls" is one of America's greatest musicals. Searching for the next best place to host his oldest established permanent floating crap game, Nathan Detroit makes a bet that high roller Sky Masterson can't land a date with a straight-edged Salvation Army dame. Not only that, but his fiancée of 14 years is threatening to walk if they don't tie the knot. Bet your bottom dollar this is the summer musical not to be missed, featuring the hottest young talent from 14 Triangle-area schools. Show opens July 15. Student tickets are $10, non-student tickets are $15. For more information visit playmakersrep.org/guysandolls or contact the box office at (919) 962-6997.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHAPEL HILL – MARCH 25, 2015 – On Thursday, June 4, 2015 from 6-9pm Hickory Tavern in Carrboro is hosting the second annual “Dining for Dollars” to benefit Chapel Hill-Carrboro Meals on Wheels program. The evening will include a dinner and a silent auction. Tickets go on sale May 1, 2015. For more information about this event, go to chcmow.org.

Stacey Yusko, Executive Director of Chapel Hill-Carrboro Meals on Wheels says, “We hope you will save the date of Thursday, June 4th from 6-9 pm at Hickory Tavern restaurant in Carrboro for our second annual Dining for Dollars fundraiser. Last year's event raised over $40,000 to help Chapel Hill and Carrboro's Meals on Wheels program feed our neighbors. With the support of our community and our sponsors we are looking forward to an even bigger event in 2015.”

Dining for Dollars event chairperson Tina Cunningham adds, “We could not be more appreciative of the support of our sponsors, and we are expecting some exciting auction donation items this year. The involvement of these community partners is vital to the Meals on Wheels mission to provide hot nutritious meals to homebound seniors in our area.”

Hickory Tavern restaurant in Carrboro is hosting the event. Tickets go on sale May 1, 2015. For more information about this event, go to chcmow.org.

For almost 40 years, Chapel Hill-Carrboro Meals on Wheels has provided hot, nutritious meals and personal visits Monday through Friday to seniors and disabled individuals living in Chapel Hill, Carrboro and the surrounding area. CHCMOW improves health, reduces isolation and helps seniors and the disabled maintain their independent lifestyles, regardless of their ability to pay for services. Demand for our meals has grown exponentially from 65 meals a day to 160 in the last 5 years at the same time our clients' ability to pay has decreased to cover only 20% of the cost.
