Kidzu Children's Museum 10th Birthday (Mar.6)

Kidzu Children's Museum is excited to announce its milestone 10th birthday and invites museum members, the public, and the media to join in a free day of play and performances on Sunday, March 6th from 1-5pm! Free interactive performances will take place on the University Place stage. They include a family-friendly improv set with DSI Comedy, music by the Waterlilies, a reading with local authors Elaine O'Neil and Missy Julian Fox, a performance by the Clapping Hands Farm, and an opportunity to interact with musical instruments with our friends from the North Carolina Symphony Zoo.

Inside the museum, Beadluxe will be making keychains, Mad Science will have experiments in the Makery, Mi Escuelita Preschool will host bi-lingual story time, and friends of Disney's The Good Dinosaur will be making friendship bracelets. While supplies last, guests will be able to enjoy pizza from Alfredo's Pizza Villa, ice cream from Maple View Farms Creamery, and birthday cake from Harris Teeter.

On March 6th, the museum will proudly be accessible to all! In lieu of gifts, please consider a birthday donation of $10.00 per adult in honor of Kidzu's 10th year! <http://www.kidzuchildrensmuseum.org/>
