

Bio for Reema Griffith

Reema Griffith has been the Executive Director of the Washington State Transportation Commission since 2005. Under her leadership, the Transportation Commission serves as the State Tolling Authority, sets the fares and policies for the Washington State Ferry System, leads the state's long-term transportation planning, conducts public outreach and education on transportation matters, provides guidance to the State Legislature and Governor, and conducts special studies. Prior to the Commission, Reema spent two years at the State Department of Licensing where she served as the Executive Policy Advisor to the agency's Director. Prior to this, she spent seven years with the Washington State Legislature where she served as a Senior Policy and Fiscal Analyst to the State House and Senate Transportation Committees. Reema also spent five years in the private sector serving as the General Manager for the U.S. office of an international trading company.