

Intern Architect:

Trinity is a nationally recognized healthcare planning and architecture firm based in Columbus, Ohio. We are business planners, architects dedicated to address the issues that challenge healthcare facilities today. We are currently looking for a self-motivated entry level Intern Architects to join our growing team.

Position Responsibilities:

- Develops and coordinates drawings and specifications including: Program Compliance; Code and Agency Compliance; Schedule Commitments; Product research and appropriate detailing that is constructible and meets the budget requirements; Quality of the drawings, specifications and all required deliverables.
- Assist Project Architects in developing individual disciplines portions of a project task list or drawing list.
- Provide input to the design and construction schedule.
- Organize and direct the architectural or engineering team to execute the work in an orderly, timely, and coordinated manner.
- Advises the Project Architect or Engineer when the drawings and specifications are complete and ready to be issued.
- Provide support for any tasks required for the successful completion of the project.
- Assist or leads in Live Design meetings.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Architectural License not required
- Bachelor's Degree required; professional design certifications are highly desired.
- Ability to function comfortably, gain trust and deal effectively with a wide range of individuals including Clients, Consultants, Contractors and other project team members
- Proven ability to function in all production activities from kick-off through close-out
- Revit, Sketchup and Healthcare experience is preferred
- Strong organizational skills, self-motivated, organized and effective under pressure
- Have a minimum of 3 years of experience

Please send your resume, work portfolio and cover letter to slind@trinityhealthgroup.com or atoombs@trinityhealthgroup.com.