Death, Bifurcation, & QDROs

REGISTRATION
Deadline:
8/16/2016
No On-site Registration

Friday, August 19, 2016

2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

2.0 CLE Credits

Location: Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, CA 90015

Program Overview

What happens to the division of a retirement plan when a participant or alternate payee dies before judgment is entered? What happens if a participant or alternate payee dies after judgment is entered and the QDRO is not yet entered? What is the best way to handle the division of pension benefits when there is a bifurcation? These issues and more will be discussed by QDRO expert Louise Nixon, Esq.

About Our Speaker

Louise Nixon has practiced law since 1994 specializing in retirement benefits, determining the community or marital interest in pension benefits earned through employment, and in consulting and drafting appropriate orders for division and disposition. She is founder and president of QDRO Counsel Inc., APC. Ms. Nixon is an active volunteer at the Center and also serves on its Board of Directors. She is the 2015 recipient of the Center's Hall of Fame Award.
