

on Wednesday July 13, and Thursday July 14. The Hubbard Woods Design District will be beginning their sale with and INDOOR SIDEWALK SALE on Thursday July 14.

Through out these business districts merchants will set up alongside numerous other hand selected, specialty vendors. Everything from shops, to boutiques and salons will offer incredible prices on quality products. You may have a sighting of EllieBee the Clown who will once again wander through-out the village to the delight all of our children. Along with shopping, there are unique culinary creations offered by a variety of some of the finest area restaurants as well as fun street food vendors offering snow cones, cotton candy, and a few favorite summer treats.
