

Thank you to the 2015 Red Invitation Holiday Sunday Sale Committee: Tom Fritts, Katie Cory, Rockey Flintermann along with Ann Smith, Director of Membership of the WNCC, who all worked diligently to ensure the success of this yearly event. The mailing radius of the invitation was expanded and well received, the large window displays in the stores added recognition and advertisement for the participating merchants. The WNCC would like to thank the Red Invitation Committee, all of the participating merchants and the shoppers who supported the annual event.
