

Viva Florida 500 Commemorative Products – Now Available!

What do Guy Harvey, the famous French perfumer, Christian Louis, and a small spring in Marion County have in common? The answer is they all have licensed products available as Viva Florida 500 merchandise! Over the past eight months, as events and activities have taken place all over the state – and even the world – a few partners have committed to producing commemorative items that capture the importance of this year for Florida. Guy Harvey, well known for his conservation initiatives and apparel in Florida and around the world, has contributed a painting of a Spanish caravel printed on the back of the Guy Harvey Viva Florida 500 commemorative T-shirt. Florida's History Shop has exclusive rights to sell this unique version featuring the Viva Florida 500 logo printed on the sleeve.

The Viva Florida 500 commemorative perfume is a tribute to the 450 year relationship between Florida and France.

Designed and manufactured by Master Perfumer Christian Louis, there are two limited edition scents which balance floral orange blossom with spice for the Florida by Night and a lighter orange and fresh smell for the unisex daytime perfume, Florida.

Stop by Florida's History shop to get your bottle of "Ponce Premium" water. Bottled in a small scale operation at Orange Springs in Marion County through sustainable practices, this product tastes great and is Florida through and through. For larger orders, the bottler also offers direct sales through their website, PoncePremium.com.

Other items include apparel, books and holiday ornaments. All these items and more are made available through a special partnership with Florida's History Shop, and are now available on VivaFlorida.org.