

Special News and Announcements

NEW! 2016 Meetings & Convention Planner

View the NH Business Review “2016 Meetings & Convention Planner” from VisitNH.gov/Meetings and contact publication sponsor New Hampshire Division of Travel & Tourism Development to receive a free hard copy, normally priced at $5.50/copy, by emailing travel@dred.nh.gov.

New Hampshire is Shakin’ it up with a NEW Chocolate & Martini Tour

Consider planning a little extra twist into your next New Hampshire meeting or event by visiting one of the state’s acclaimed mixologists or having demonstrations by a master chocolatier. Certainly don’t leave without sampling for yourself. Find this tour and more on www.visitnh.gov/vacation-ideas/nh-food-tours.aspx

Granite State Growler Tours can Customize for your Seacoast Meeting or Retreat

The very successful Granite State Growler Tours can modify tours mid-week for business groups and retreats including picking up and returning to your hotel, packaging in dinner, and a catered meal at a brewery instead. To learn more, contact David Adams at 603-964-0284 and david@nhbeerbus.com. Website: www.nhbeerbus.com

Strawbery Banke Museum announces plans to launch pilot Boat Shop program with workshops, lectures, and displays

Strawbery Banke Museum, a 10-acre award winning living museum directly in downtown Portsmouth, will be adding The Boatshop at Strawbery Banke with Piper Boatworks of Rye for 2016 offering programs focused on maritime related topics and skills. This fascinating museum offers unique site rentals in historic settings with modern conveniences in spaces such as their lecture hall and their media room. Learn more or book your space with Greg Brackett at 603-422-7502 and gbrackett@strawberybanke.org.
Website: www.strawberybanke.org

Want to plan a meeting or event in New Hampshire?

For general assistance, contact:

New Hampshire
Division of Travel & Tourism Development
VisitNH.gov/meetings

Michele Cota, Trade & Industry Relations Manager
Michele.Cota@dred.nh.gov
P: 603-271-2665