Unlike most towns, Bruges has most of its medieval architecture intact. The center of Bruges has been a UNESCO World Heritage site since 2000. Of the many notable sites you will see on your walking tour are the Church of Our Lady, whose brick spire reaches 401.25 feet, making it one of the world's highest brick towers. The sculpture Madonna and Child, which can be seen in the transept, is believed to be Michelangelo's only sculpture to have left Italy within his lifetime. Bruges' most famous landmark is its 13th-century belfry, housing a municipal carillon
