June 9 Jackiem Joyner - As a young turk on the contemporary jazz scene, saxophonist Jackiem Joyner is far from complacent in his sound and style. Not afraid to challenge the fan base, he has hit No. 1 twice and Top 3 twice on the Billboard chart. Joyner gets adventurous on his fifth album, Evolve. It's his first on which he wrote and produced the entire set, including the up-tempo urban-pop tracks with vibrant flashes of strings that provide a contrast to Joyner's gentle melodic sax.

In addition to playing alto and soprano sax, Joyner is a multi-instrumentalist who played many instruments along with a couple of high-profile assists from Grammy-nominated sax player Gerald Albright and internationally-renowned keyboardist Keiko Matsui. Joyner was named Debut Artist of the Year for his 2007 debut, Babysoul by Smooth Jazz News. His sophomore set, Lil' Man Soul registered a pair of No. 1 Billboard hits. Two singles from Joyner's self-titled third record climbed into Billboard's Contemporary Jazz Songs Top 3. For more information, visit jackiemjoyner.com

June 16 Special EFX - Few bands in contemporary jazz have been as entertaining and artistically satisfying as Special EFX. Spearheaded by guitarist Chieli Minucci and co-founded by the late percussionist George Jinda in 1983, Special EFX helped to pave the road for contemporary jazz during its early years in the 1980s and they continue to set the standard. Chieli Minucci was born in New York City and grew up in nearby Forest Hills, Queens, where he still resides. His father, a concert pianist in Italy and a successful composer whose songs were sung by Nat King Cole, Bing Crosby and Julius LaRosa, introduced him to the piano at age six and encouraged him to become a composer.

The in-demand New York born and raised Minucci has been the first call for such iconic stars as Celine Dion, Lionel Richie, Jennifer Lopez, Jewel, Mark Anthony, Jessica Simpson, Anastasia and others, as well as jazz/pop artists Bobby Caldwell, Marion Meadows, Jay Beckenstein, Kim Waters, Alex Bugnon and Gerald Veasley. Chieli has earned 10 Emmy Award nominations and 3 wins for his music on the long-running NBC daytime drama "The Guiding Light." He has also been the main producer for Universal Music's Gotham Music Library, having written and recorded over 100 CDs. For more information, visit chielimusic.com

June 23 Elan Trotman & Althea Rene - Quickly becoming one of jazz's most thrilling and emotive performers, Elan Trotman continues to stand out and push boundaries as a composer, performer, teacher and recording artist. Trotman's playing displays his own fresh ideas and distinctive tone. So much so that the New England Urban Music Awards named him best male jazz performer, and he's been nominated for Boston Music Awards in the jazz category. Born and raised in Barbados, and educated at the world-renowned Berklee College of Music in Boston, Trotman approaches jazz in his own way. Blending Caribbean rhythms from his roots with skillful horn textures, his playing is full of surprises. For more information, visit elantrotman.com

Althea René was born in Detroit, Michigan and began her musical journey at the tender age of four. She studied classical music while attending Howard University in Washington D.C. and later gained further musical inspiration from the accomplishments of Yusef Lateef, Ian Anderson, and her father, one of Motown's original Funk Brothers, Dezie McCullers. She has since developed her own creative style.

For more than 10 years she was employed as a Wayne County Deputy Sheriff in Detroit, Michigan. Today, she is a full-time performing/recording artist and some regard her as a "master of her craft" and one of the world's most exciting solo improvisational flutists. She made history by becoming the first flute player in the history of Billboard Chart to reach the number one spot. For more information, visit althearene.com
