

CATHEDRAL PRAYERS

UNITED THANK OFFERING INGATHERING

What is UTO, and how does the collection help others? It is a 125-year-old way that the entire Episcopal Church offers blessings to others. All coins and bills placed in the UTO boxes are combined with other Episcopal Church offerings and distributed through grants that are requested from our churches. In 2015 the total of $1,558,006 was distributed for the mission and ministry of The Episcopal Church. The money served 46 domestic and overseas projects. Please pick up your UTO box and prayerfully consider giving to help our Episcopal brothers and sisters.

COATS AND BLANKETS GIVEAWAY

As the weather begins to turn colder, many homeless will be coming by Wings of Life and asking for coats and blankets to keep warm. They have been able to furnish these in the past and with your help, they will be able to once again supply those who are in need of clothing and blankets. If you can help with any of these items, please call 251-432-5245 or stop by Wings of Life and drop them off.
