

Loons: The Call of the Wild

Join Loon Preservation Committee's Executive Director & Senior Biologist Harry Vogel and award winning nature photographer, author and naturalist John Rockwood for a joint presentation on loons.

When: Saturday, June 11 at 4 pm @ Massabesic Audubon Center, Auburn, NH

John Rockwood will give a multimedia presentation called "Diving In." He will give an in-depth look into the Common Loon's fascinating behavior. Videos and photographs used in the presentation were taken last summer on lakes in southern NH and on Squam Lake. Harry will talk about the work of LPC biologists and how loon watchers can get involved to help loons.
