

Island Hopping in the Northern Lesser Antilles

Pam Hunt has long been fascinated with the islands of the Caribbean, and has a goal of seeing all the West Indian endemic birds. Achieving this often requires quick visits to small islands for the one or two species that can only be found on each.

In one trip, Pam found all her target birds, plus cool lizards, friendly people, and an active volcano.

She will share her tale in this program.

Thursday, February 18, 2016 @ 7:00 p.m.

The Loon Center, Lee's Mills Rd., Moultonborough, NH
Handicapped Accessible. FMI: 603 476-5666