

Learn about one of the many initiatives highlighted in the film Axis of Bias that promotes anti-Israel or anti-Jewish propaganda in American classrooms under the banner of teaching "dialogue for peace," "critical thinking skills" or "conflict resolution skills." This initiative encourages Jewish students to empathize with Hamas and teaches that the United States' use of military drones is terrorism.

Hadassah Boston and the Israeli American Council
Present

A Curriculum Watch™ Program and Conversation

Featuring the Film

Axis of Bias in our Public Schools

THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 2016 • 7 p.m.

1320 Centre Street, Suite 301
Newton Centre, MA 02459

Join Hadassah Boston to view Axis of Bias, a film that spotlights the anti-Israel and anti-Jewish propaganda being taught in classrooms across the United States and in our own communities.

WELCOMING SPECIAL GUESTS:

Dr. Sandra Stotsky, former Senior Commissioner of the Massachusetts Department of Education, said, "this is a must-see video for parents who care about their children's education and want educators with academic integrity in the classroom."

Dr. Sandra Alfonsi, Chair of Hadassah's "Curriculum Watch," said, "this curriculum is a pedagogically flawed initiative by a self-styled guru of Educational Civil Disobedience promoting anti-Israel propaganda to well-meaning students who want to bring peace to the world."

Ralph Avi Goldwasser, producer, director and writer of Axis of Bias

To register, please contact Hadassah Northeast at 781-455-9055 or hne@hadassah.org.

Hadassah's Curriculum Watch initiative begins the sometimes arduous process of dealing with school systems, publishing houses, and communities to remedy the situation.

Suggested donation $10

