

Information for Referring Professionals

Next Step Recovery is committed to supporting our residents' successful transition to sober housing, and this commitment begins before our clients join our transitional living community.

We work closely with individuals, families, treatment facilities, educational consultants and other health-care providers to ensure we meet every client exactly where they are in their individual recovery journey. With our residents' consent, we welcome ongoing communication with their extended support team including family members, referring professionals and other care providers.

If you are a referring professional, the following information can help your clients and their families take the next steps to join our recovery community.

Safe, Structured Sober Living

Next Step Recovery's structured sober living program includes:

- Individual case management
- Mandatory daily 12-step work
- Individual and group counseling
- Job search support services
- Life skills education & sober recreation
- Onsite house managers and 24-hour peer support
- Transportation for work, school and volunteering

We offer a unique blend of clinical and peer-based support. All of our residents have daily access to our program's licensed professional counselor and clinical addictions specialist, certified substance abuse counselor, house and case managers, sponsors, and fellow residents who share their own recovery experience, strength and wisdom.
