

CRAIGS SECOND ANNUAL

STORYBOOK CHARACTER DRESS UP DAY

IN HONOR OF TYPE 1 JUVENILE DIABETES

We are having a JDRF Kids Walk to support Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation in support of three of our Craig students. Our goal is to raise $1200 for research for Type 1 diabetes while the students will be walking two laps during their recess in honor of the Walk. If we reach our goal, we will celebrate by having a Storybook Character Dress Up Day on Friday October, 30. We will collect donations Monday through Thursday and post their donation as shoes along the hallway. YELLOW $1, BLUE $5, GREEN $10, and RED $20. So bring in your donations to help us support this wonderful cause and our three awesome students!!!!

The class with the most money donated will get a PIZZA PARTY!!

HERE'S THE PLAN: On Friday October 30, we will be having a Storybook Character Dress Up day to celebrate our love for books! The students (and even some of the teachers) at Craig will dress up to represent their favorite storybook characters. So, dust off those books or take a trip to the library and find a fanciful, adventurous, funny or even inspirational character to bring to life! To help promote reading, students need to choose a character from a book. The key is simplicity. Don't feel that you have to go all out, just suggesting the character is fine.

Come to school that day dressed as that character...simple as that!

ARE THERE ANY RULES ABOUT THE COSTUMES?? YES

No masks may be worn! Nothing ghoulish or scary is acceptable.

No accessories that need to be carried around.

Wear comfortable shoes and appropriate clothing for PE and recess.

Keep it simple by using items that you have around the house.

Remember, this is NOT a Halloween costume day. The character must be a true storybook character and not a TV, movie or cartoon character unless the character originated from a storybook.

There must be a book that each student read about the particular character.

WE ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO A FUN DAY WITH ALL OUR STORYBOOK CHARACTERS!!!
