HARLEMMUSICFEST

2015
SUMMER/FALL

In 2014, HARLEM WEEK, Inc. formed an unprecedented partnership to celebrate Harlem's musical heritage by promoting its culture with multiple concerts, performances, workshops, symposiums and film screenings. Each year during the summer months two million plus visitors and residents participate in HARLEM WEEK, one of New York's major cultural attractions. In June 2014, HARLEMWEEK in partnership with the New York Philharmonic launched the Harlem Music Fest (HMF) to promote the multifaceted genres of Black and Hispanic music performed by artists and musicians who capture and highlight the spirit, rhythm and heartbeat of Harlem's musical roots, past, present and future.

Harlem Music Fest presented a stellar roster of artists representing all types of music and dance including: Jazz, R&B, Hip Hop, Latin, Caribbean, Classical, Blues, African, Gospel, Swing & Line Dancing, Ballet, and Tap. HMF attendees were impressed with the diversity and quality of the artists and their unique presentations.

Since the 1970s the co-founders of HARLEM WEEK produced an eclectic array of musical genres to honor the contributions and legacy of our magnificent musicians, superstars, dazzling choirs, soulful vocalists, and contemporary artists to highlight their spirit, vitality and extraordinary careers. These artists are globally acclaimed and have contributed to Harlem's musical landscape and beyond.

HARLEMWEEK has established an outstanding reputation for identifying new and emerging artists as well as featured performers with illustrious careers. Harlem Music Fest will continue that tradition.
