POTTERY PAINTING and CLAY PLAY

Private Evening Lessons: Offered October – March After 6pm

“Throwing” is the term used for creating pottery on the potter’s wheel. This introduction to an ancient art form will inspire you to want to learn more. The lesson includes a demo followed by hands on instruction.

Tutelage, clay, tools, firing and clear glazing of your completed work is included in the cost.

1 Hour private throwing lesson $90/hour per person

1½ hours private lesson $125/hr/pp

Maximum 2 people

Special Offers:

- ❖ 1 hour follow up class to decorate your handmade pieces – includes materials & firing costs $75/hr/pp
- ❖ Bring a Friend or Couples’ Night: 2 hours private evening – start with painting a piece of pottery from the Bermuda Clayworks collection followed by a one on one throwing lesson to make your own creation $175pp
- ❖ Hand-building Lessons: as above but substitute tutelage on the potter’s wheel for learning to create using slabs, texture tools and hump moulds. Prices as above.
