Autism 101

When you first receive an autism diagnosis it can be overwhelming. There's the initial emotional shock, which is quickly followed by feelings of inadequacy as there is no manual for parenting itself, let alone parenting a child with an autism spectrum disorder. And there is SO much to learn.

Autism 101 is designed to help families who are new to the diagnosis gain a solid footing to begin their journey. This course is designed for parents new to the diagnosis, but is open to all parents who feel they may need a refresher or simply were overwhelmed when they first received the diagnosis and are now ready to take this course. Some individual sessions may be attended as noted, at a cost of $5.00, as space allows.

To give parents a stronger foundation as they begin their journey, we include an on-line learning experience from UMass Medical School called UDiscovering : Discovering Behavioral Interventions. This interactive online course will be made available to parents who register for Autism 101 for a period of 3 Months. Going at your own pace, you will learn about ABA and thus be better equipped to meet the challenges of parenting your child on the spectrum. We are pleased to be able to make this affordable for parents.

Autism 101 will begin on Thursday October 1st from 7-9 PM . Space limited to 10 Parents There will be a $25.00 fee for the complete course. series

Family Fun and Fitness

This will be the third year that we have offered this program to Families. Over time the program which takes place on Monday evenings, by default, has evolved to serve older teens and adults. Initially we walked every week, but last year we added an exercise component with Juli O'Mara, a certified personal trainer who also is autism savvy. We chose to work on Core Strengthening exercises since poor trunk control impacts so many aspects of functioning and is a common facet of the physical aspects of autism. This group is open to all with older teens and adults who need to work on improving their physical fitness. Many of those on the spectrum lack outlets for physical activity and tend to engage in sedentary recreational pursuits like computers and video gaming. Additionally the food aversions commonly seen in ASD help to establish poor nutritional habits.

To address this we will expand the program to include one night a month where participants will explore healthy eating choices through dining at health conscious restaurants and sharing food. This will bring a social aspect to the program while demonstrating better choices and expanding the food selections of participants. This is a Parent /Adult Child program but is open also to participation by and with shared living providers and staff from group homes. For parents of adults, the benefits are obvious, as the years of caretaking frequently lead us to be neglectful of our own health and needs. We hope you will join us. Tuition for the next three months is $30.00/per family. Siblings and Parents are welcome to participate which will include personal training. Dining costs will not be included. In December the group will share a Pot Luck dinner. Parents of Younger Children may also subscribe to improve their health.

We've a new Autism Information Specialist here at the Center, although Donmarie is NOT a new face to many of you. Donmarie has been a member of the Center since 2006, and was a member of our Family Advisory Board prior to coming on board as a staff member on July 1st.

Donmarie has six sons, three of which are on the Autism Spectrum. She has a degree in accounting and worked for a number of years before she decided to become a Stay at home Mom. She works providing home day care for twenty years so that she could be at home and meet the needs of her boys.

With her years of experience parenting three boys on the spectrum with various presentations and challenges as well as gifts she is uniquely qualified to take on the role of Autism Information Specialist.
