Patio Pot Geraniums in 12" faux terra cotta pots

The reconstructed Jones Log Barn, circa 1730, (shown above) will be a focal point of the proposed Living History Center at Duportail in Chesterbrook, PA. To help make this dream a reality, The Covered Bridge Garden Club will be donating a portion of its 2015 plant sale proceeds to the Tredyffrin Historic Preservation Trust's Adopt-A-Log program. Go to www.tredyffrinhistory.org for more details.

Order Policy:

- In the event that an entire plant variety is unavailable, customers will be issued a refund for that item.
- Please be aware that color variations occur within a specific plant variety and that close substitutions may be made for a named variety.
- For some plant variety photos, please visit our website at www.coveredbridge-gardenclub.com.

The Covered Bridge Garden Club supports local horticultural and historical programs.

Thank you for your support!
