Transportation:

There are several transportation services to and from the airports,
as well as services to help you get around the city:

Flyaway Buses

The LAX FlyAway® buses offer convenient regularly scheduled* round- trips, seven days a week to Union Station. From Union Station, passengers may ride the Metro Gold Line to Pasadena, take a cab, or call for uber driver.

Uber Los Angeles:

The Uber app connects you with a reliable ride — from low-cost to premium — in minutes.

Payment is automatic through the app and fares are usually cheaper than a taxi.

Los Angeles Taxi Services:

<http://www.taxicabsla.org/>

Metro Bus:

Metro bus service runs throughout Los Angeles County. The buses travel most major streets in the county, covering different types of service. Metro Local routes stop about every two blocks and are painted orange. Metro Rapid routes are faster, because they stop only at major intersections; they are painted red. Metro Express routes travel long distances on freeways and make very few stops; they are painted blue.
