K9 Solutions will be offering a Free New Dog Orientation. This one hour orientation is free to any new or current pet parent that wants to attend. The orientation will be led by our professional dog trainer Sarah Chambless and will cover topics that most pet parents commonly need help with.

Call 559-360-3360 to enroll

Topics that will be covered:

- Potty training / crate training
- How to provide a happy homecoming
- How to introduce your pet to new family members (especially children) and other pets in the household
- Introduction to basic training
- Question and answer session with the trainer

To help ensure that you experience a successful journey into pet parenthood, we encourage you to attend the FREE New Dog Orientation.
