Keynote Speakers of 2011 Annual Meeting in Salt Lake

The three keynote speakers who will be addressing the theme, Spiritual Care on the Threshold: Honoring our Ancestry, Creating our Future during of the 2011 Annual Meeting of the ACPE in Salt Lake City Utah are: Rachael Noami Remen, Matthew Fox and KC Kyazen Sato Sensei. These keynoters come from diverse and well known disciplines and will bring their own creativity, understandings and perspective from holistic medicine, adult education, and 21st Century thinking.

Racheal Naomi Remen, M.D., is Clinical Professor of Family and Community Medicine at UCSF School of Medicine and is a founder of several Commonweal programs that engage in educational, charitable, and research activities which contribute to the health of individuals, to public health, and to the health of the global environment. She is author of Kitchen Table Wisdom and My Grandfather Blessings. Dr. Remen will speak to our theme from her innovative work with holistic and integrative medicine.

Matthew Fox, author of 28 books on spirituality, education and other topics is well known to many in ACPE. He was a Dominican priest for 34 years and for the past 30 years has been educating adults with an alternative pedagogy based on cosmology, creativity and contemplation. He is well known for his part in the renewal of ancient traditions in his understanding of creation spirituality as he integrates feminism (there are newer terms for this Garrett but I don’t know which to use), Native American, western mystical and Tibetan traditions, to name a few. Dr. Fox will speak to our theme from his creative understandings as an adult educator and theologian.

KC Kyosen Sato Sensei, is Vice Abbot and Executive Director of Big Mind Zen Center in Salt Lake City where she provides teaching and leadership in Soto Zen practice. In 2009 she received her Dharma Transmission in the Soto Zen lineage and has earned her Doctorate in Physical Therapy. She has also recognized as the Utah Physical Therapist of the Year in 1995 and continues to work as a clinical physical therapist in the orthopedic setting. She will speak to our theme from her work with core Zen teaching as they apply to living in the 21st Century.
