NACC Audio Conferences

NACC is pleased to announce our audio conferences planned for October through December. Please mark your calendars and register early as space is limited.

1. “The Parables of Jesus: Hope for a Broken World” presented by Dr. Mary Ann Getty-Sullivan
   Thursdays, October 14 and October 21, 2010 at 12:00 noon CT to 1:00 p.m. CT
   Session 1 (October 14) will provide the biblical foundations of parables, an exploration of the meaning of the kingdom of God in the Gospels, and the location of the parables in the Synoptic Gospels as well as the centrality of their importance and function in Jesus' teaching.
   Session 2 (October 21) will offer sample parables particularly from Luke and show how these can be used in the pastoral care of those confronting illness, loss and death.

   For more information and to register, click here
   http://www.nacc.org/resources/edops.asp#14boct2010

2. “Spirituality and Aging” presented by Dr. Kathleen Fischer
   Thursdays, November 11 and November 18, 2010 at 12:00 noon CT to 1:00 p.m. CT
   More information coming soon.

   Thursdays, December 9, 2010 and December 16, 2010 at 12:00 noon CT to 1:00 p.m. CT
   Following the session, participants will be able to:
   1. Appreciate the ministry of chaplaincy as an heroic journey for one's self and for those they serve.
   2. Explore the Chaplain’s participation in the universal archetype of the wounded healer in which Jesus the Christ is the par excellence example.
   3. Recognize anew the Chaplain’s inner resources that nourish them in ministry.

   For more information and to register, click here
   http://www.nacc.org/resources/edops.asp#9dec2010

We will continue to hold the audio conferences on Thursdays so as not to conflict with the Champion Series that are held on Wednesdays. For questions about our audio conferences, please contact Jeanine Annunziato (jannunziato@nacc.org).