

North Jersey Chapter Meeting—February 17, 2016

TOPIC: New Jersey Legislative Update; How legislation is impacting the industry!

SPEAKER:

Anthony Russo is the Executive Vice President of Government Affairs and Communications for the Commerce and Industry Association of New Jersey (CIANJ), a business association representing the interests of more than 900 companies. In this capacity, Mr. Russo is responsible for all government affairs matters impacting the business community. Prior to his current position, Mr. Russo served as Deputy Executive Director of the National Lime Association in Washington, DC representing the interests of mining companies producing calcium oxide (aka lime) at the federal level.

Mr. Russo started his career at the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection as a senior engineer issuing water quality permits. He then spent 5 years as an environmental consultant working for two firms, GES and ERM. He began his government affairs career when he served as Director of Regulatory and Legislative Affairs for the Chemistry Council of NJ, representing chemical and pharmaceutical companies in Trenton on legislative and environmental matters.

A graduate of the New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT) with a degree in mechanical engineering, Mr. Russo resides in Jackson, NJ with his wife Judy and two daughters, Julia and Jaclyn.
