

Congregation Leyv Ha-Ir invites you to A Musical Retreat Sunday, March 15, 2015

The Day's Events

Come and Drum with Joe Tayoun-10:45 am to noon

Legendary Master Percussionist Joseph Tayoun* will offer a 75-minute workshop in Middle Eastern percussion. Joe will teach us basics of Middle Eastern drumming and get our hands flying! No experience necessary. If you have a drum, please bring it. If not, a drum will be provided. This workshop is open to everyone - all ages and levels of experience. It's fun to drum!

Lunch and Schmooze

12:15 pm to 1:00 pm - Catered lunch from Day By Day

Finding Your Own Inner Song with Rabbi Julie-1:00 to 1:45 pm

Music from Different Jewish Traditions with Jessi Roemer

1:45 pm until 3:45 pm

Jessi Roemer, our musical leader and cantorial soloist, will lead this interactive workshop that will travel across time and geography through Jewish music. We will explore Jewish music from Middle Eastern, European, and Sephardic cultures, learning in Hebrew, Yiddish, Ladino, and English. Come ready to open your heart and sing the varied and rich songs of the Jewish people!

Cost

Full Day including catered lunch:	$50.00
Drumming workshop only:	$15.00
Drumming Workshop + Lunch	$35.00
Afternoon session including lunch:	$40.00

Registration required.

To register, please send your check, payable to Leyv Ha-Ir and marked "Retreat," to: Congregation Leyv Ha-Ir, P.O. Box 15836, Philadelphia, PA 19103

Details

PLACE: The Penn Center House, 1900 JFK Boulevard, 2nd Floor Leisure Lounge
CONTACT: Evy Simon at evysimon@hotmail.com, 215-561-7474 or 215-593-5248

 For more info about Joseph Tayoun:

<http://www.musicopia.net/musicians/roster-teaching-artists/artist.php?id=32>