

Freedom in Relationships

Please RSVP • 617.926.1230 • boston@us.brahmakumaris.org

Clear the blockages, leave the bondages, release the burdens in your life and experience spiritual love in all its glory. It is very easy to tell others what they have to do, but it is hard for us to hear what we have to do. Everything begins with the self, including relationships. It is only spiritual love and care that can heal us and our relationships. Everyone wants to have an experience of true, spiritual love because it brings about a sense of spiritual equality. Together, let us explore the vision of spiritual love and care which brings freedom in relationships.

Thursday, February 12, 2015
