The Richard William Greenberg Foundation is currently accepting submissions from local non-profit organizations for programs and projects that promote wellness through effective, alternative, non-traditional healing methods.

VISION:

We are currently focused on supporting programs that benefit children, the elderly, and under-served populations. We encourage imaginative and creative ideas.

REQUIREMENTS:

- non-profit organization established on the Central Coast
- proven track record of success and/or share a common vision
- clear benchmarks established to measure program progress and results
- organizational infrastructure to implement the proposed project

SUBMISSION MATERIAL:

- A cover letter about your organization.
- A synopsis of the proposed project.
- A copy of your annual budget.
- A list of your board of directors.

Submissions must be received by: Thursday, March 5, 2015

After a review of the submissions, the Foundation will select candidates and request formal grant proposals.

Thank you for your interest.
