

Nomination Deadline: March 27, 2015

The Greater Dallas Hispanic Chamber of Commerce continues its tradition of recognizing and celebrating Latina leadership with its 2015 La Cima Awards. Nominations are now being accepted for 2015.

Your Information

First Name	_____	Last Name	_____
Title	_____	Company	_____
Address	_____
Phone	_____	Email	_____

Nominee Information

First Name	_____	Last Name	_____
Title	_____	Company	_____
Address	_____
Phone	_____	Email	_____

Award Nomination: (select one of the following)

- | | | |
|--|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Entrepreneur Leader | <input type="checkbox"/> Industry Leader | <input type="checkbox"/> Nonprofit Leader |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Corporate Leader | <input type="checkbox"/> Government/Education Leader | <input type="checkbox"/> Emerging Leader |

Please provide a narrative statement, at least one page in length, detailing why the nominee is deserving of the award and specifically addressing the required attributes contained in the award description and include:

- professional accomplishments
- list of the community events/organizations and leadership roles supported and held by the nominee, including nominee's efforts on the event/organization's behalf

To complete the nomination, please include:

- ☐ Professional Bio
- ☐ Resume
- ☐ Headshot of nominee

Use the space on the following page for the narrative statement. For the La Cima Judges to give serious consideration to the nominee, please be sure to specifically address the bullet points above and include additional information that will make the nominee stand out among the rest. Use an additional page if necessary. Self-nominations are accepted.

Acknowledgement: I understand that the nominee will be recognized in the program materials for the La Cima Awards whether or not the nominee receives the award she is nominated for. By signing below, I verify that I have spoken to the nominee and she agrees to have her name listed as a nominee.

Signature

Printed Name

Nomination packet must be submitted by 5:00 pm on March 27, 2015. The nomination packet may be submitted via email diana@gdhcc.com or by mail to: La Cima Awards Committee, 4622 Maple Avenue, Dallas TX 75219.

LA CIMA AWARDS NOMINATION CATEGORIES

- LA CIMA Entrepreneur Leader – The Latina nominated for this category is a successful entrepreneur who has built her business by increasing revenue and creating jobs. She also volunteers her time and talent to make a positive impact on professional and community organizations that serve the Hispanic community and/or the community at large. (Must be a GDHCC member or become a member upon receiving the award.)
- LA CIMA Corporate Leader – The Latina nominated for this award is successful in the corporate world. She is a recognized leader in her corporation and is a positive reflection of her corporation by her involvement and impact on professional and community organizations that serve the Hispanic community and/or the community at large. (Must be a member or become a member upon receiving the award.)
- LA CIMA Industry Leader – The Latina nominated for this award either owns or works in professional services or industry specific enterprise (law, finance, transportation, technology, construction, health, etc.) and is recognized as a leader in her field. She also volunteers her time and talents to make a positive impact on professional and community organizations that serve the Hispanic community and/or community at large. (Must be a member or become a member upon receiving the award.)
- LA CIMA Government/Education Leader - The Latina nominated for this category works in education or government and is a recognized leader in her field. She also volunteers her time and talents to make a positive impact on professional and community organizations that serve the Hispanic community and/or community at large. (Membership not required to receive the award.)
- LA CIMA Nonprofit Leader – The Latina nominated for this category works for a nonprofit organization and is recognized as a leader in the nonprofit sector. She volunteers of her time and talents to make a positive impact on professional and community organizations that serve the Hispanic community and/or the community at large. (Membership not required to receive the award.)
- LA CIMA Emerging Leader – The Latina nominated for this category is a college/university student or young professional (less than 3 years as a professional) who is a recognized leader. She volunteers of her time and talents to make a positive impact on student, professional and/or community organizations that serve the Hispanic community and/or the community at large. (Membership not required to receive the award.)

*Self Nominations are Accepted