Licensed Guidance Counselor - Indianapolis

Exciting and fulfilling opportunity for a licensed guidance counselor to help prepare African American youth for high school and post-secondary success. The Center for Leadership Development seeks a highly passionate and caring professional to further our mission of developing youth in Central Indiana. If you're looking for a non-traditional opportunity to share your knowledge and special talent as a licensed Guidance Counselor, while advancing academic preparedness, college admissions, persistence and graduation, this job is for you!

Position Qualifications: Candidate must hold a master's degree in school counseling from an accredited college or university; hold a valid Indiana school counselor license and 2-5 years' experience as a school guidance counselor. Candidate should have a proven record of influencing student success and providing effective outcomes, as well as exceptional interpersonal skills and the ability to drive student results.

Contact information: Interested candidates should submit a resume, cover letter, evidence of current license and salary requirements to Reggie Session via email to rsession@cldinc.org. No phone calls please.
