

Melissa Mesman, MPH, CHES, came to KSU from the University of South Florida where she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology in 2011 and a Master of Public Health degree in Public Health Education in 2013. Melissa grew up in Ontario, Canada and enjoys traveling up north to visit with friends and family. Melissa is currently the Peer Health Educator Coordinator with the Center for Health Promotion and Wellness at KSU, and is a Certified Health Education Specialist. She enjoys teaching and mentoring student peer health educators, as well as developing health promotion campaigns for college-aged students. Melissa likes spending time outdoors with her fiancé Tyler and their three dogs.