

African American Enrollment Week of Action and Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service

“Boosting Enrollment In the African American Community”

Friday, January 9 - Monday January 19, 2015

Movie Nights @ Gallery Place - Release of SELMA

On Screen Advertisements and Enrollment

Regal Gallery Place Theatre

701 7th Street, NW (Visit DCHealthLink.com for details)

Saturday, January 17, 2015 - Boyz 2 Men Barber Shop

Enrollment Day

10:00am – 4:00pm

World Class Cuts Barber Shop

403 K Street, NW

Sunday, January 18, 2015 - Faith In Action Sunday

10:00 am – 12:30 pm

First Baptist Church Randolph

712 Randolph Street NW

11:00 am – 1:30 pm

Church of the Living God

1417 Chillum Road, Hyattsville MD

Monday, January 19, 2015 - Black Lives Matter: Getting

Back to the Dream - 10:00 am – 1:00 pm

Metropolitan AME Church

1518 M Street NW, Washington, DC

Monday, January 19, 2015 – MLK, Jr., Holiday Parade-

11:30 am-2:00 pm

Step off at 2500 MLK, Jr. Avenue, SE

Destination Covenant Baptist Church

3845 South Capitol Street, SE

Monday, January 19, 2015 – DC Health Link Enrollment

at the UPO 2nd Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service

10:00 am – 2:00 pm

Petey Green Community Center

2907 MLK, Jr. Avenue, SE

“Of all the forms of inequality, injustice in health care is the most shocking and inhumane.” - Martin Luther King, Jr.

February 15th is the deadline to sign-up for 2015 Coverage

Saturday, January 24, 2015 - Boyz 2 Men Barber Shop Enrollment Day

10:00am – 2:00pm

Best Cuts Barbershop

2612 Georgia Avenue NW,

Saturday, January 24, 2015 - Open House Enrollment

Leadership Council for Healthy Communities

10:00 am – 4:00 pm

First Baptist Church

710 Randolph Street, NW

DC Health Link in collaboration with various African American community organizations and local businesses will accelerate its efforts to enroll as many African Americans possible in quality affordable health insurance before the February 15th deadline. Special emphasis will be focused on outreach to African American men. Studies find that African-American men have the highest disability and death rates from high blood pressure, cardiovascular disease, diabetes, and prostate cancer of any racial or ethnic group in the country.

For more information and enrollment, call 855.532 LINK (5465)

DOWNLOAD

DC Health Link Mobile App for iPhone and Android

FOLLOW US ON TWITTER

@DCHealthLink

Open Enrollment Ends February 15, 2015 - Visit DCHealthLink.com