

JOACHIM PRINZ I SHALL NOT BE SILENT

A documentary film about a rabbi who would not be silenced, from synagogues in 1930's Berlin to the March on Washington in 1963.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH 2015

The African American Community Service Agency and Community Relations Council of the Jewish Federation of Silicon Valley invite the community to a screening of the new documentary "Joachim Prinz: I Shall Not Be Silent"

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26

6:00pm – 8:00pm

African American Community
Service Agency

304 N. 6th St., San Jose

Free, reserve a seat by calling the AACSA office (408)292-3157

Rabbi Joachim Prinz addressed the crowd at the 1963 March on Washington, right before Martin Luther King, Jr. spoke. Speaking as a rabbi who had been expelled from Germany by the Nazi regime, Prinz warned that America must not make the same mistake he had witnessed in Germany—becoming a nation of silent onlookers.
