ONGOING EVENTS

January is a wonderful time to begin The Bible Challenge and either read the entire Bible or the entire New Testament, Proverbs and Psalms in a year. Consider encouraging your entire parish or some other members of your church or family and friends to join you in making a spiritual resolution in 2015 to engage God's Word on a regular basis and participate in The Bible Challenge. This ministry began at St. Thomas' Episcopal Church in 2011 and has spread to over 2,500 churches in more than 40 countries with over 500,000 people participating now in The Bible Challenge. To find out how you or your parish and you can participate, visit: www.thecenterforbiblicalstudies.org or email the Rev. Marek Zabriskie at: mzabriskie@stthomaswhitemarsh.org. The Center for Biblical Studies website offers reading plans for adults, teenagers and parents and children and lots of helpful resources to parish and individuals.

The Seamen's Church Institute needs your coats! This time of year, seafarers come into the Port of Philadelphia from warmer climates and have no idea what they're in for with our winter days. Donations can be mailed to: 475 N. 5th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19134, or dropped off at your convenience to the same address. Thank you in advance for your help!

Reading is one of the most pleasurable and inexpensive ways to learn, travel, and escape the harshness and pressures of life. This past September, The Rev. K. Brewster Hastings, Rector of St. Anne's Church, Abington, PA, published a collection of short stories entitled "A Certain Kind of Affection." Each story captures moments in the lives of ordinary people as they cope with restlessness and desire. The stories invite the reader to ask the questions, "What satisfies me? Where is my peace?" The book is avail-ble for sale at all major internet booksellers, a perfect Christmas gift!"
