Monday, November 24, 2014

Dear Fellow Teacher,

I am sure that you got into the teaching profession for all the right reasons. Maybe it was a love for children, or the chance for a fulfilling career that goes beyond a simple paycheck, or maybe just the chance to have an impact on the future of our society.

Your reasons for becoming a teacher are noble to say the least. Unfortunately, if you're like most teachers, you find yourself focusing most of your attention on classroom management issues rather than on teaching, and you now realize that all those college courses didn't quite prepare you for teaching in the real world.
