

Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School (CRCDS) is grateful for its enduring relationship with the American Baptist Churches, USA and particularly its partnership with the Rochester Genesee Region and its Executive Minister, Alan Newton. Founded as a Baptist seminary in 1817 in Hamilton, NY, CRCDS continues its mission of training transformative leaders in a theologically progressive and diverse environment. CRCDS counts many luminaries among its graduates including Walter Rauschenbusch, Howard Thurman and Martin Luther King, Jr. While the current student body of CRCDS represents a large range of denominations, the Baptist legacy rooted in the fiber of CRCDS continues to play a large role in the formation of all CRCDS students today.

CRCDS offers a variety of programs including both graduate and certificate opportunities. Our graduate programs, include the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts, the Master of Arts with a concentration in Kairos Studies and the Doctor of Ministry. CRCDS also offers a Graduate Certificate as well as a certificate from the School of Christian Leadership and the Thurman King School for Black Church Leadership. All courses are open to auditors, regardless of course level.

CRCDS has many exciting opportunities for you to take advantage of. Here are a few coming up in the next few weeks:

Spring Preview on March 9, 2015
