CVOA is returning to Bar Harbor this Fall and it is time to book your room! We will be staying at the Cromwell Harbor Motel again, located in easy walking distance to downtown Bar Harbor. The rooms are $88, or $98 per night, subject to availability. We have not pre-booked any rooms, so it is recommended you make your reservation with the Cromwell Motel ASAP. You can cancel the reservation up to 7 days in advance, with a $20 cancellation fee. First night deposit is required at the time of booking. Be sure to tell them you are part of the CVOA group.

Arrive Friday, hopefully early enough to get in a bike ride, a hike, or just a stroll through town. Friday is the traditional Al Diamon Memorial pub-crawl. We will meet up at Galyn's Restaurant (17 Main Street, down the hill towards the dock) for happy hour around 5 pm. From there, people head out to find that perfect meal in one of the 40 area restaurants (see www.barharborinfo.com/dining for a list of restaurants). The motel does not have a restaurant so you will want to head into town for breakfast and lunch, or bring your own. Some of the rooms have kitchenettes; so inquire when booking your reservation. Saturday night we will probably have a happy hour at the hotel, then people are free to do dinner in town on their own.

There are literally hundreds of miles of hiking trails, some more challenging than others, but all are spectacular. The Carriage Trails are great for walking or biking and pass through some of the more beautiful sections of the Park. Biking the Park Loop is a great experience, probably one of the most scenic rides in the state. Kayaking around the many islands in the harbor is also a fun activity. And don't forget your golf clubs! There are several outstanding golf courses on the Island including Kebo Valley and Northeast Harbor Golf Club. This is a good time to shop in the town of Bar Harbor as the stores are offering end of season deals. Sunday morning there is a farmer's market just down the street, with lots of great local produce. Acadia National Park is beautiful this time of year. And don't forget to get up early and catch the sunrise on top of Cadillac – it is worth the effort!

So, make your reservation and let Pete Weston know you are going to attend. It is that easy! Contact him at pbweston@maine.rr.com or call 207-885-5995 if you have any questions.
